

OSCLG Values Statement

The Organization for the Study of Communication, Language, and Gender is committed to feminist values, especially:

- Social justice,
- Intersectionality,
- Diversity, equity, inclusion, and access,
- Antisexism,
- Antiracism and anticolonialism,
- Nonviolence and non-discrimination,
- Queer and trans liberation, including all sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions,
- Anti-classism,
- Religious and philosophical pluralism,
- The inherent worth of all bodies and abilities,
- Respect of persons,
- Consent,
- Creativity, academic freedom, and freedom of speech and expression,
- Integrity, including academic integrity,
- Reasoned, rigorous debate with respect for different opinions,
- Conference and journal spaces free of harassment, stalking, and violence, and
- Ongoing reflexivity about our own biases and need for growth.